5. (Unclassified - LLM) Spoke with Mrs. Trudy Wright, in the office of Representative Lloyd Meeds (D., Wash.), and answered her questions concerning the Agency's training program, possible interest in students participating in cooperative education programs, and effect of employment on draft status. She will be forwarding a copy of the Agency's professional brochure sent to her to a personal friend of the Congressman's who is making these inquiries on behalf of his son.

6. (Secret - JGO) Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, who advised that the Chairman has responded to Mr. Kirkpatrick's letter concerning the NBC presentation on the Pueblo. He did not provide further details.

I reviewed with Mr. Slatinshek security clearances of various staff members which are being updated in keeping with the Chairman's policy that all senior staff personnel sit in on hearings of the full committee. The following members of the House Armed Services Committee staff were briefed during the day and appropriate security clearance documentation completed: Messrs. William Cook, George Norris, William Short, and James Shumate.
